"Immigration Consequences of Criminal Conduct" Overview of Concepts & Discussion of Emerging Issues Presented by: Wendy S. Wayne & Laura Murray Tjan CPCS Immigration Impact Unit

The interplay between immigration and criminal law can have devastating consequences for any non-citizen charged with a crime. With skyrocketing numbers of immigrants being deported for relatively minor criminal offenses, it is imperative that anyone representing non-citizens understand basic concepts in this area and be aware of emerging issues.

When: Thursday, March 26, 2009, 4 – 6:30 p.m.

Where: First Baptist Church 88 South Street, Pittsfield (Use the side entrance next to Pittsfield Cooperative Bank)

This is a free training offering CLE credits. Light refreshments will be served. This training is provided with additional support from The Berkshire Immigrant Center (www.berkshireic.com), and CPCS.
