The Harvard Report: Racial Bias in the Criminal Justice System

Commissioned by Chief Justice Ralph Gants in 2016 and completed by The Criminal Justice Policy Program at Harvard Law School, this study examines the Massachusetts criminal process from charging to sentencing. It identifies points in the process where racial disparities exist, with a focus on the decisions that appear to contribute to the racial disparities in incarceration rates in the Commonwealth.

THE EVENT

A summary of the study will be followed by a panel discussion moderated by Byron Knight, Jill Klowden, Rita Muse, and Peter Tilley.
